Forty Nazi Planes Downed in Battles Over Great Britain

Night Raids Over London Are on Much Reduced Scale—Northwest Coastal Town Is Heavily Bombed—Thirty-One Attackers Destroyed in Furious Fight Over Isle of Wight

LONDON, Sept. 27 (P).—Nazi raiders carried out random bombing of the capital's suburbs last night and early today in the twentieth consecutive night of air siege, but the attack was on a much reduced scale. There seemed to be much less anti-aircraft fire. German pilots who came over London may have been puzzled by the darkness. The blackout was never more complete.

A maternity wing in a North London hospital was struck by a high explosive during the peak of the attack which appeared centred on that and the northwest area.

BOMBS IN CENTRAL LONDON
Into the pitch blackness the raiders dropped flares now and again to pick out their targets. A few incendiary bombs damaged two old-established shops in Central London. Auctioneers' premises in the same district also were hit.

One northwest coastal town experienced its worst night raid of the war. A number of buildings were bombed, including a variety of houses.

The southeast coastal area had been under heavy attack last night and at least six raiding planes were reported brought down in that section in a series of dog fights.

AIRCRAFT LOSSES
The Air Ministry announced that thirty-one German planes had been shot down before midnight, more than one-third of them costly bombers. Eight British planes were lost. Three British pilots were safe. Aside from this, it was said unofficially but authoritatively that at least nine other raiders had been

APPOINTED AS TRADE DEPUTY

L. D. Wilgress Becomes Chief Officer in Trade and Commerce Department

OTTAWA, Sept. 26 (P).—Leahy Dana Wilgress, director of the Commercial Intelligence Branch, Department of Trade and Commerce, was today appointed deputy minister of that department.

The announcement was made tonight on behalf of the Prime Minister following a late meeting of the Cabinet Council. Mr. Wilgress, a native of Vancouver, succeeds Major J. G. Parmelee, who is retiring on superannuation.

Mr. Wilgress, who will be forty-eight years old next month, has held trade commissioner appointments in many parts of the world, has played a large part in all major trade agreement negotiations conducted by Canada in recent years, and has been director of the Commercial Intelligence Service since 1932.

ON SHIPPING BOARD
As deputy minister of trade and commerce, Mr. Wilgress will also be chairman of the War-time Shipping Board.

Mr. Wilgress was born in Vancouver, October 20, 1892, and received his early education there. He also attended school in Yokohama, Japan, and at Victoria. He attended McGill University, Montreal, where he graduated in 1914 with a B.A. degree and first class honors in economics and political science.

He entered the trade commissioner service as a junior in 1914 and in 1916 was posted to Omsk, Siberia. In 1918 he was transferred to Vladivostok. He was a member of the Canadian economic mission to Siberia in 1918 and 1919 and carried on investigations of trade opportunities in Southeast Europe during 1920 and 1921, after which he was sent to London for special work.

SELLS PROPERTY TO DEFENCE DEPARTMENT
HALIFAX, Sept. 26 (P).—The Nova Scotia Exhibition Commission decided today to sell its property here to the Department of National Defence. The Provincial Exhibition has been staged on the grounds annually for many years.

The premises were taken over by the Royal Canadian Navy temporarily some time ago. As a result, the 1940 exhibition was canceled. Military authorities at Ottawa have asked to be allowed to buy the grounds.

A GENEROUS gift to the Mayor's Fund for the relief of war sufferers in England was made by the Chinese Chamber of Commerce last night. At the conclusion the Chinese voted the sum of $1,000 towards the fund.

U.S. Legion Condemns Aggressors

Only Western Hemisphere And Great Britain Expected From Order

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (P).—The United States countered Japan's drive into French Indo-China today by placing an embargo on all iron and steel scrap exports after October 15, except to Western Hemisphere countries and Great Britain.

The action, it was generally believed, might prove damaging to Japan's economy, inasmuch as an estimated 90 per cent of all Japan's imports of scrap iron and steel come from the United States.

The scrap iron embargo was ordered by President Roosevelt after consultation with defence officials and the State Department. The order was issued, an announcement said, "with a view to conserving the available supply to meet the rapidly expanding requirements of the defence programme."

However, it was clearly indicated that the immediate purpose of the embargo was to reinforce American policy for maintenance of the status quo in the Pacific. It quickly followed announcement of a new $25,000,000 export—important bank loan to China—A step also said to have been taken at this time to bolster Chinese morale and military resistance to Japan.

Three Japanese planes bombed a railroad crossing near Haiphong, killing or wounding fifteen natives. The Japanese commander told French authorities this was a mistake.

The Government of Indo-China announced that a strong protest on the incident had been lodged with Tokyo.

LAND UNOCCUPIED
The Japanese came ashore six miles from this city unopposed under the terms of an agreement between the French and Japanese Governments, and then, led by a squadron of light tanks, went off to bivouac in quarters provided by the French.

In an overland thrust into Indo-China began last Sunday night, Japanese troops from the Japanese-occupied Chinese Province of Kwangsi were reported to have taken Lanxang, eighty miles north-east of Hanoi, the capital of Indo-China.

Gold Production Sets New Record
OTTAWA, Sept. 26 (P).—Canada's gold production set up a new high monthly record in July at 456,626 ounces and compared with 439,925 in July, 1939, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics reported today. The first seven months of this year's production totaled 3,028,508 ounces compared with 2,929,884 in the same period last year.

CHINESE GENERAL STRENGTHENING FORCES
CHUNGKING, Sept. 26 (P).—A Chinese army spokesman said today Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is strengthening his forces in Western Kwangsi Province, on the border of French Indo-China, possibly to strike first at Japanese troops entering the neighboring colony for a flank attack in China. The Chinese concentrations in the West were described as far outnumbering the Japanese occupying troops.

Hundred-Mile Front Seared by Raging Fires in Most Savage Assault of the War—All R.A.F. Planes Return Safely—Further Details of Raid on Berlin Are Announced

Hitler's Reich Capital to Be Given Nightly Bombings

LONDON, Sept. 27 (P).—British bombers set off a 100-mile string of raging fires along the Continental coast all the way from Zeebrugge, Belgium, to Cap Gris Nez, France, early today in a raid which dwarfed even their previous savage assaults.

Starting at Dunkerque, the Royal Air Force set the first great fires to blazing, then struck next to the south at Calais, Boulogne and Cap Gris Nez, nearest Nazi-held French port to Britain, and completed the line of flames with attacks on the Ostend area to the north.

German searchlights frantically stabbed the skies in an effort to locate the British bombers for their ground batteries, but the beams were lost in the bomb flashes and fires reflected brilliantly in the night skies.

KING VISITS AIR STATION

Chats With Canadian Pilots And Sees Squadron Take Off on Duty

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, Sept. 26 (P).—"Your squadron is doing a fine job of work. Congratulations."

With these words the King today praised the fighter squadron of the Royal Canadian Air Force when he paid an informal visit to its station and talked to the Canadians who have been shooting Nazi raiders out of the sky or crippling them at an average of one day.

There was an air raid alarm as His Majesty, accompanied by Sgt. Ldr. Ernest McNab, of Regina, was shown through the station.

During the alarm the King went to the officers' mess with Group Capt. C. K. Blair and other officers. The Canadians were drawn up outside their dispersal point. His Majesty wore the uniform of an Air Chief Marshal. The Canadian pilots and rankers were in off-duty uniform.

It was during this inspection that the King addressed his words of praise to the squadron.

DISCLOSES RAID ON LIBYAN PORT

Royal Air Force Bombs Bengali Heavily—Photographs Show Sunken Craft

CAIRO, Sept. 26 (P).—Shipping in Bengali, important Italian Libyan port, suffered heavily in a bombing raid by Royal Air Force planes on September 18, British headquarters disclosed today, showing photographs of the raid effects.

One photograph showed clouds of smoke pouring from a large ship while the outlines of a sunken craft—probably a barge—could be distinguished nearby.

Across the harbor what appeared to be a destroyer could be seen sinking, her superstructure awash. Another ship was burning.

JAPANESE POSTERS NEAR AMERICAN EMBASSY
TOKIO, Sept. 27 (P).—Posters asserting "Japan won't permit Britain or the United States to interfere in East Asia" were pasted up today near the United States Embassy. Printed in Japanese and English, they appeared on the heels of the United States' banning export of scrap metal to all Western Hemisphere countries and Britain. "Firm determination is demanded to safeguard Japan's southern lifeline from the United States," the posters said.

TO BUILD GIANTIC PLANT IN BRAZIL
WASHINGTON, Sept. 26 (P).—The United States and Brazil signed an agreement here today for a $45,000,000 steel plant to be constructed in Brazil within the next two and a half years. Material for the plant will be bought in the United States under a credit extension of $20,000,000 from the Export-Import Bank. The Brazilian Government already has earmarked $25,000,000 as its share in the capitalization.

POUND INVASION BASES

The nightly attack on Hitler's potential invasion bases followed a day of raids that spread fire and destruction from Berlin to the Channel coast, and an angry retort from German shore batteries which shelled Dover.

The Royal Air Force counter-offensive ranged far and furiously inland upon key German military cities and along the bruised coast of Holland, Belgium and France—and an authoritative journalistic voice warned that henceforth Berlin is to feel regularly a systematic attack.

A headline in the Evening Standard—a property of Lord Beaverbrook, the Minister for Aircraft Production—said the R.A.F. "will be over Berlin every night."

SOLDIER MEETS INSTANT DEATH

Five Others Injured. One Seriously. When Army Truck Leaves Road

FERGUSON, Ont., Sept. 26 (P).—One soldier was killed instantly and six others injured, one critically, when a military truck carrying members of the Perth Regiment, Canadian Active Service Force, overturned on the Guelph-Fergus Highway, five miles south of here, late today.

Pte. W. E. Bowers was killed and Pte. Arthur Smith was critically injured. The other four who suffered head-injuries and bruises, were: Ptes. Len Skidmore, Leslie Willis, Plummer McIlven, William Dickie and L. Cpl. Cyril Smith. All the injured are in hospital at Guelph.

CRASHES INTO TREE
The truck in the accident near here was one of a group of sixty transporting the regiment to Camp Borden. The machine, in sixth place in the motorcade, slipped off the edge of the pavement while rounding a curve. It collided with a tree and overturned, pinning several men beneath it.

The trucks were reported to be traveling at approximately thirty miles an hour at the time of the crash. The injured were removed to hospital in an army ambulance.

HUNT FOR FLYING BRITISH AGENTS

German Alleged Men Being Landed in Holland to Meet Symphonic Dutch

AMSTERDAM (Via Berlin), Sept. 26 (P).—A German hunt for flying "British agents" reported to be landing by night in Holland to meet sympathetic Dutchmen, resulted today in the arrest of five men in the coastal Province of South-Holland.

Three of them were described by the authorities as Czechs, and all were alleged to have been members of the crew of a British plane which landed two nights ago near The Hague. They were turned over to the German Army of Occupation.

Five weeks ago a dozen men in a British plane who landed in South Holland were arrested, after managing to hide for several days.

Tobruk Damaged; Warships Pound At Concentrations

British Airmen Inflict Heavy Damage on Italian Port—Fleet Fires Shells Into Sidi Barrani at Point-Blank Range—Duce's Army Is Also Reported to Have Suffered

ALEXANDRIA, Sept. 26 (AP)—A Royal Air Force communiqué issued at Cairo tonight said "severe" damage was done in air raids on the Italian port of Tobruk yesterday. Bombs hit wharves, barracks and other objectives and intensive fires were started, it was stated.

Another foray into Italian East Africa, the communiqué added, started fires at the Metemma Air-drome visible fifty miles away.

A third and point-blank shelling of Italy's invasion bases in Egypt by the Mediterranean fleet left towering flames and caused re-bounding explosions in the centre of Marshal Graziani's desert army, the British naval command announced.

AT SHORT RANGE

The warships were said to have moved into the waters a short distance off Sidi Barrani and fired at point-blank range, scoring direct hits on Italian military objectives.

In Rome the Italian high command acknowledged the British naval bombardment of Sidi Barrani and added that the Italian port of Tobruk, on the Libyan coast, had been bombed heavily by the British two days in succession.

A British naval communiqué said the new attack on Sidi Barrani—the third in ten days—was made about dawn yesterday. Many shells were said to have fallen in the heart of bases established by Marshal Rodolfo Graziani for his invasion of Egypt.

START HUGE FIRE

Waves of flames were seen to leap skyward and severe explosions followed. One huge fire was observed two hours after the bombardment ended.

The British claimed they apparently had further seriously disrupted Graziani's efforts to get his troops in advanced supply bases into fighting trim for a possible enlargement of his eastward thrust.

The British declared that their warships were shelling Italian bases at will and thus far had not encountered any opposition from the Italian fleet.

The opinion was expressed by British authorities that their systematic attacks on concentrations along the coast, coupled with destructive bombings, had ruined Italian hopes of a renewed drive immediately after their sixty-mile advance from Libya.

FOOD IS DROPPED

A parachute bag filled with all the food aboard the flying boat was dropped to survivors. To this the air crew attached a life preserver to keep it afloat.

There followed a few moments of mute drama. The flying boat signalled it was going off to get help. From the survivors came a message in semaphore. But the flying boat was traveling too fast to read it.

"Before leaving them I went down very low on the water and saw that it would be impossible to land and take them on board if they could not be rescued otherwise," the captain said.

So he made the lifeboat's occupants understand that he was off to fetch a ship which he thought was about forty miles away.

The captain went on: "We found a warship and signalled that there was a boat full of people and indicated their position. I said we would meet the warship near the lifeboat. We flew back to the boat and then to the warship again, but she was not on the right course, so I signalled 'follow me' and then flew directly over the ship toward the lifeboat.

"The warship altered her course and followed.

"When I was getting near the lifeboat I dropped a smoke flare, which the warship saw and signalled 'OK'.

We waited until we saw the warship actually stop alongside the lifeboat and then, as we had received a signal telling us to return to our base before dusk, we left.

"We were very glad to see those people safe and all felt very bucked about it."

University of B.C. Professors Give Evidence at Trial of Vancouver Bookseller

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP)—The trial of Wilfrid Ravenor, Vancouver bookseller charged with having in his possession documents containing material likely to prove prejudicial to the safety of the state, was resumed today when he appeared in police court here.

Ravenor's counsel, Garfield King, charged that the prosecution was insulting a friendly power—Russia—by submitting works of Premier MacDonald and Joseph Stalin as evidence against the accused. He also entered as an exhibit a telegram from the assistant librarian at Ottawa stating that works by prominent Soviet officials were kept in the library of the House of Commons.

PROFESSOR TESTIFIES

Evidence was given by Professor A. F. Clarke, instructor of French at the University of British Columbia, who said he believed that several volumes he had read which were listed among those submitted by the Crown as exhibits against Ravenor, were not prejudicial to the safety of the Empire or Canada.

He refused to give a direct "yes" or "no" answer, as requested, when asked if such books as those seized by police as evidence, were fit to give to young army trainees.

NANAIMO MAN HEARD

Thomas A. Barnard, Nanaimo, member of the Draft Board, said he was familiar with most of the books listed, and that only fear and hatred of Nazism and Fascism would be derived from reading them.

The trial had been remanded from Monday, when four University of British Columbia faculty members testified. Asked to testify when the contents of a book are "prejudicial to the safety of the state" and when they are a necessary part of contemporary history, they admitted they were unable to do so.

PREPARED TO GIVE BATTLE

Lord Lothian Declares Australia and New Zealand Powerful Nations

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—The Marquess of Lothian, British Ambassador to the United States, said in address here today that Australia and New Zealand would offer "formidable resistance" in the Pacific to any challenge from the totalitarian powers.

Speaking at New Zealand's Dominion Day at the World's Fair, Lord Lothian declared "if ever the security of Singapore or the Dutch Islands or the islands of the South Pacific is challenged by the dictators you can rest assured that they will encounter a most formidable resistance from the ever-growing organized strength of Australia and New Zealand."

He added: "It will be able to strike with immense speed over the far-ranging spaces of the Pacific right up to the corner bastion of Commonwealth security in the East, the great naval base and fortress of Singapore."

Lord Lothian said: "People sometimes speak of Australia and New Zealand as two isolated nations looking for help from outside. It is quite true that both rely mainly on the British Navy for their long-distance defence, which is one reason why they always come so staunchly to the assistance of the Mother Country in time of trial."

STRONG NATIONS

"But a truth which is sometimes overlooked is that they themselves are nations which can contribute a great deal to the security of the Pacific itself, from their own strength. Take the air force alone, the total number of pilots and air crews who will be available every year from these two countries for Empire and air defence will not fall far short of 25,000."

"Already New Zealand has sent abroad 25,000 soldiers and there are many more in training and for home defence. But it is in the air force that it is making its greatest effort. Already the strength of the air force is over 4,000 officers and men. Under the Empire Air Scheme New Zealand will each year provide 800 trained pilots to go direct to England, 530 partly trained pilots to be sent to Canada for completion of training with 1,400 observers and air gunners. This means that over 3,500 trained personnel will proceed overseas each year until victory is won."

FORMIDABLE NAVY

Lord Lothian then turned to Australia's war effort, saying: "Australia has a small but formidable navy of its own. The Australian cruiser Sydney sank only a few weeks ago in the Mediterranean the Bartolomeo Colonn, which was supposed to be the fastest cruiser in the world. Australia, too, has already sent tens of thousands of volunteers to Britain and the Middle East and has many more in training."

"The total voluntary enlistments for overseas service is 123,000, together with an army for home defence which is rapidly being advanced to 350,000. Australia already has twenty air squadrons with more than 33,000 men accepted for training for air service overseas. The Australian Air Training Scheme will turn out a steady flow of between 20,000 and 25,000 pilots and other members of the air service a year to aid Britain and to strengthen the security of the Pacific."

BISHOP PRAISES EMPIRE ARMEN

Canadian "V.C." Predicts Victory For Britain When Pirates Driven From Skies

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP)—Air Marshal W. A. Bishop, V.C., of the Royal Canadian Air Force, told the British people over a British Broadcasting Corporation network tonight that Britain's airmen will drive the "pirate" Huns from the skies of Europe as they did twenty-five years ago.

Telling his audience that it was a thrill to speak to them on British soil, he recalled that a quarter century ago it was his privilege to come here during the Great Conflict, "a Canadian stripping fired with ambition like thousands of other boys to do my humble, best duty towards victory."

"Now here we are in the very heart of a still greater conflict, and it is with the most intense admiration and most profound pride that I salute the matchless splendour of our young airmen today, who, through the challenge of combat, hold relentlessly the captaincy of the clouds."

"As the months go by we shall have trained pilots in their thousands coming here to do once again what their forebears did before. I bring you good cheer from Canada. The British Commonwealth air training plan is a tremendous success."

COASTAL AREAS

The coastal areas: Kiel naval base bombed, the flash of a great explosion seen "very close" to the German battleship Schornhorst; shipping barges and dockside stores pounded at Antwerp, Flushing, Ostend, Dunkerque, Calais and Boulogne, the Brest naval base assaulted so heavily that railway trucks were thrown into the air by the force of ground explosions, and ships, oil plants and harbor railways bombed.

Calais, said the Ministry, was pounded in a concentrated attack of an hour and a half; Boulogne at intervals of three and one-half hours, and the whole city lit up by a series of violent explosions and fires that leaped 200 feet into the air visible fifty miles away.

From all these operations every British plane returned safely.

OFFICIAL STATEMENT

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP)—The Air Ministry news service issued the following bulletin Thursday: "From soon after 10 o'clock last night (Wednesday) until the early hours of this morning heavy bombers of the Royal Air Force kept up a series of attacks on important military objectives in and around Berlin."

"Four separate attacks within an hour were made on the Klingenberg power station situated in the heart of the industrial section to the east of the city."

"This station, known as the Gross Kraftwerk Klingenberg, has an output capacity of 300,000 kilowatts and is the power supply source of some of the city's largest industrial concerns."

"Sticks of heavy calibre bombs which burst on and around the station were followed by an outbreak of fire."

FIRE IS STARTED

"The west power station two miles south of the Tegel See, which has already been heavily damaged in previous raids, was again attacked and a large fire started."

"Salvoes of explosive bombs were dropped on the Schoneberg railway yard three miles southwest of the city centre and on a main railway station near the Charlottenburg district, one of the chief residential quarters of the city."

"In an attack on Berlin's main airport at Tempelhof a line of bombs was laid across the northern half of the airfield and nearby railway sidings were also bombed."

"Another raid which arrived over the eastern outskirts of the city six minutes before midnight cruised about the industrial district for twenty minutes searching for its target under heavy fire from ground batteries."

"After five parachute flares had been released over the target, a munitions factory at Tuderdorf, fifteen miles east of Berlin was located and bombed and fire was seen to break out."

Commissioners Hold Lengthy Discussion On Hours of Stores

City Merchants and Clerks' Association Will Be Given Opportunity to Suggest Amendments To Shops Early Closing By-Law

LENGTHY discussion on a plan to rescind the shops early closing by-law in order to amend the measure was held by the police commission yesterday afternoon. Leslie Wilby appeared as the representative of retail grocers, and C. J. Wright for Retail Clerks, Local No. 604. Commissioners agreed to table for two months a motion to shelve the by-law in order to give all concerned an opportunity to suggest legal amendments.

During the discussion, the subject of automobile camps selling groceries to tourists was raised. Mr. Wilby asserted: "Automobile camps are not catering to tourists, but to a type who prefers to live in a one or two-room establishment rather than rent or buy a home."

He maintained that any move to rescind the by-law would not improve the condition of small grocers. "Legalizing the sale of groceries after hours would not help them. The majority do not want present hours altered," Mr. Wilby contended.

URGES PENALTIES

Mayor Andrew McGavin pointed out that it was possible to purchase groceries after regular hours in Oak Bay, Saanich and Esquimalt.

Mr. Wilby resumed: "You should place teeth in the by-law by increasing the amount shown in the penalty clause. Fears of the consequences prevent crime. The by-law in its present form is inadequate. The municipalities will cooperate if the situation is cleared up in the city," he charged.

"You do not know the municipalities as well as we do," exclaimed Forrest L. Shaw, city solicitor.

"While a member of the City Council, I cannot remember hearing any suggestions to alter the by-law. At a recent meeting of merchants and clerks in the Crystal Garden those present felt the shops early-closing by-law was adequate. Commissioner Edward Williams reminded Mr. Wilby.

Mr. Wilby countered that the meeting wanted the by-law enforced and improved. Commissioner Williams said he had attended the meeting and could not recall any discussion on improving the by-law.

POOR DEFINITION

Chief J. A. McLellan asserted that the by-law did not clearly define groceries. Mr. Wilby felt the merchants wanted to know what they could sell and what they could not sell. Mr. Williams stated the by-law must be rescinded before it could be improved.

"If all the small stores were allowed to sell groceries after hours, it would be unfair to the large stores. Chain stores are not so great a menace as those who sell after hours. The greatest menace is the confectioner and Chinese who sell at all hours. We want you to define what can and what cannot be sold under a confectionery licence," Mr. Wilby retorted.

"We must not try to hurt the tourist trade which means so much to Victoria. A by-law to define what may be sold would require

Mayor's Fund At City Hall Shows Promising Total

MAYOR Andrew McGavin announced that the Mayor's Fund for the relief of Nazi bombing raids in the British Isles had passed the $2,000 mark early yesterday afternoon. From all sources contributions of amounts as little as twenty-five cents from persons in poor circumstances continued to pour into the City Hall.

Arrangements have been completed for a Greater Victoria tag day tomorrow, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Andrew McGavin. Envelopes containing donations from school children will be collected on Tuesday, according to Alderman W. H. Davies.

Alderman B. J. Gadsden plans to cruise the city and industrial plants on Saturday in a decorated automobile with a public address system to receive contributions. The car will bear large streamers with the words, "Lord Mayor's War Sufferers' Fund."

"I suggest heavier penalties and power in the by-law to refuse licence," Mr. Wilby remarked.

"That is a highly dangerous course. Penalties are up to the magistrate," Mr. Shaw replied.

Mr. Wilby suggested that merchants and retail clerks be allowed to submit suggestions on how the by-law could be improved.

"As long as I am Mayor, I will not stand for any 'Blue Sunday' in the city," Mayor McGavin declared.

"Everybody concerned must be given a fair chance to be heard," Commissioner Williams reminded Mr. Wilby.

PUTS BLAME ON NAZI INFLUENCE

T. C. Rogers Asserts Germany Backed Mexico in Oil Expropriations

German influence was behind the movement in Mexico which led to the expropriation of oil companies. In the opinion of T. C. Rogers, formerly district administrator for the Mexican Eagle Oil Company in Mexico and now living in Victoria.

Addressing the Rotary Club at luncheon in the Empress Hotel yesterday, Mr. Rogers declared that Nazi influence was very strong indeed in Mexico, and Russian influence also had been a big factor in the disturbance of the republic. "The Mexican Government now has control of the oil business, and if they had made a show of it, one could not object, but it has been a series of expropriations," he said. After the Government took over, foreign trade was lost, and there had been no exports of any proportions. The Japanese and Italians also had been trading with Mexico, but the navy had stopped that.

SERIOUS FLIGHT

"Mexico is in a very serious predicament at the moment. What the outcome will be, nobody knows," Mr. Rogers commented.

Explaining events leading up to the expropriations, he stated that ever since Diaz had been thrown out Mexico had been going downhill, and today few people would trust them. Business in Mexico was progressively becoming more difficult and hazardous.

The whole trend of the last few years, the speaker asserted, showed clearly that from the very start the Mexican Government had intended to expropriate the oil industry, but had taken steps to give its actions an appearance of legality, egging on the workers in their ridiculous demands in the understanding that they themselves would be given control, whereas all along it was the Government's intention to take over control of the industry after expropriation. In the end, the men found that they had merely changed bosses and got themselves into a hopeless mess.

MORE VICHY ARRESTS

VICHY, Sept. 26 (AP).—The Petain-Laval Government announced today that it had arrested 100 more Vichy officials.

Solomon Grunbach and Vincent Auriant have been confined in "administrative internment." Auriant was Minister of Finance and Dornier was Minister of the Interior in the Blum Popular Front Government.

Moch was an under-secretary of state and Grunbach reporter for the Chamber of Deputies Foreign Affairs Commission.

NEW "TIN HATS"

LONDON, Sept. 26 (CP).—Britons soon may be wearing "rag" helmets due to a shortage of regulation "tin hats" made of steel. Experts have produced a substitute "crash" hat made chiefly of rag for armament workers. It is half the weight of the regulation helmet and only slightly more pregnable. They will be placed on sale to civilians.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF DEPOT IS DAMAGED

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26 (AP)—
Fire near midnight caused heavy
damage to the headquarters of the British War Relief Society here and
Chief John W. Evans said there

MAN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Telephone Company Line-
man Rendered Unconscious During Storm

A severe rain and electrical storm
passed over the city yesterday afternoon and continued throughout
most of the evening, causing a few
minor accidents and some inconvenience. One man was knocked unconscious by a bolt of lightning and telephone systems suffered temporary interruptions.

Frank Pomeroy, 1235 Montrose
Avenue, an employee of the B.C.
Telephone Company, was working
on lines on Cedar Hill Crossroad
at 3.30 o'clock in the afternoon
when he was rendered unconscious
by a bolt of lightning which struck
the wires.

A fellow-workman at the bottom
of the pole, summoned help, and Pomeroy was lowered to the ground
by a rope thrown over the cross-beams of the pole. His heavy safety belt saved him from falling to the ground.

CONDITION GOOD

Taken to the Marine Service Station on Quadra Street for first
aid, his removal to the Jubilee Hospital for observation was ordered by
Dr. S. Janowski. Hospital authorities last night described his condition as good, and said he was expected to be discharged from hospital either today or tomorrow.

Just five minutes before this accident at 3.15 o'clock, a transformer
on the corner of Quadra and Port Streets was struck and damaged by lightning.

M. Mori, 2583 Empire Street, reported that lightning which struck
a tree near his home ripped off a limb.

PICTURE STOPPED

During the peak of the storm in
the afternoon, lights in one theatre
were extinguished and the show suspended temporarily.

At 7.25 o'clock last evening police
were summoned to the Bank of Montreal when an alarm bell sounded. Everything was found in order by the investigating officers
and the police concluded that the alarm had been caused by a short
circuit as a result of the storm.

A man suffered a minor injury
when he walked into the side of a car on Yates Street at 6.15 p.m.,
city police reported. He was crossing the thoroughfare at Broad Street when the accident occurred.

For today the weatherman predicted fresh and southwest wind,
partly cloudy and cool with showers.
The maximum temperature yesterday was 60 degrees and the minimum 50 degrees. Rainfall up to 7.30 o'clock was announced at 06
inch by the Dominion Meteorological Bureau at Gonzales.

Maximum temperatures observed
on the grounds of the Strathcona
Hotel was 62 degrees, with the minimum 52 degrees. Rainfall up to 4.30 p.m. was placed at .19 inch.

GERMAN CARGO SHIP CAPTURED

yesterday and a tug boat later the speedy Prince Robert apparently laying in wait, pointed on the cargo ship. Cmdr. Beard reported
the German captain and most of the crew, probably between forty
and sixty men, had been taken aboard the Prince Robert, which carries a complement of twenty
officers and 220 men.

It was the third time in the present war in which Canadian naval vessels have captured or aided in
the capture of an enemy ship.

In April the Canadian flotilla leader Ansonbome added a British cruiser in capturing the German battleship Hannover near Santo Domingo in the West Indies.

When Italy entered the war in
June the Canadian mine-sweeper
Bras D'Or captured the Italian
freighter Capo Noli, not far from Rimouski in the St. Lawrence
River.

MAY HAVE FUEL CARGO

The Weser was built in 1929 and re-registered with Lloyd's register in 1934. Various reports have been heard about the ship from time to

time, and it was rumored she might be seeking to retake enemy submarines.

The Weser is 487 feet long and has a speed of seventeen knots. The Prince Robert is 366 feet long and
was commissioned in the Canadian Navy in July after being converted
to an armed merchant cruiser at a Vancouver shipyard. Asked what use might be made of the Weser Mr. MacDonald said, "we'll have to look her over before we decide."

IS VETERAN OFFICER

The commander of the Prince
Robert entered the Canadian Navy
with the first class of cadets in 1908 and so is one of its veteran officers. Fifty years old, he retired
a few months before the start of the present war, only to return to duty against last September.

He is a grandson of the late Sir
Elihu Tachemau, former Chief Justice of Canada. His wife lives on San Carlos Drive. A son, Norman,
is a midshipman in the Royal Navy.
Other senior officers of H.M.C.S.
Prince Robert include Lieut.-Commander G. B. Hope, executive officer; Lieut.-Commander T. McDuff, navigation officer; Lieut.-Commander E. C. L. Hinchcliffe, engineer officer; Surgeon-Lieut. Edward Sellers and Paymaster-Lieut. W. E.
Adams.

NO CLEARING PAPERS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 26 (AP)—
The Mexican Navy Department reported today the German freighter
Weser, intercepted by an armed
Canadian merchantman off Mexico's Pacific Coast, had left the port of Manzanillo precipitately late Wednesday night without notifying port
authorities or obtaining clearance
papers.

The department asserted it had no explanation. The Nazi vessel sought refuge late in July in Manzanillo.

Available information, the department said, indicates the Weser
captured outside Mexican territorial waters.

BIG PLANE TO JOIN SEA COAST PATROL

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—An American-built Grumman amphibian
plane under Canadian registration took off from Laguna Field
today for an undisclosed Canadian destination to become part of the Dominion's sea coast patrol. The two-engine craft was sold recently to the British Purchasing Commission by Frank Du Pont of Wilmington, Del., for a reported price of $40,000.

BRITISH WAR RELIEF DEPOT IS DAMAGED

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 26 (AP)—
Fire near midnight caused heavy
damage to the headquarters of the British War Relief Society here, and
Chief John W. Evans said there was an "unmistakable odor of oil

in large quantities" when firemen arrived.

A spectator said an explosion shattered two panes of glass in the front of the house shortly after the alarm was turned in. An estimate of the damage was not made immediately.

Several thousand dollars' worth of shoes, garments and other relief supplies were stored in the building.

"Mary's hair looks so wavy and careless,"
"Yes, it takes her three hours to get it to look that way."

MAN STRUCK BY LIGHTNING

Telephone Company Line-
man Rendered Uncon-
scious During Storm

A severe rain and electrical storm
passed over the city yesterday afternoon and continued throughout
most of the evening, causing a few
minor accidents and some inconvenience. One man was knocked unconscious by shock, and lightning and telephone systems suffered temporary interruptions.

Frank Pomeroy, 1235 Montrose
Avenue, an employee of the B.C.
Telephone Company, was working
on lines on Cedar Hill Crossroad
at 3:20 o'clock in the afternoon
when he was rendered unconscious
by a bolt of lightning which struck the wire.

A fellow-workman, at the bottom
of the pole, summoned help, and Pomeroy was lowered to the ground
by a rope thrown over the cross-trees of the pole. His heavy safety belt saved him from falling to the ground.

CONDITION GOOD

Taken to the Marconi Service Station on Quadra Street for first
aid, his removal to the Jubilee Hospital for observation was ordered by
Dr. S. Janowski. Hospital authorities last night described his condition as good, and said he was expected to be discharged from hospital either today or tomorrow.

Just five minutes before this accident, at 3:15 o'clock, a transformer
on the corner of Quadra and Fort Streets was struck and damaged by
lightning.

M. Mott, 2583 Empire Street, reported that lightning which struck
a tree near his home ripped off a
limb.

PICTURE STOPPED

During the peak of the storm in
the afternoon, lights in one theatre
were extinguished and the show suspended temporarily.

At 7:25 o'clock last evening police
were summoned to the Bank of Montreal when an alarm bell
sounded. Everything was found in
order by the investigating officers
and the police concluded that the
alarm had been caused by a short
circuit as a result of the storm.

A man suffered a minor injury
when he walked into the side of a
car on Yates Street at 6:15 p.m.,
city police reported. He was crossing the thoroughfare at Broad Street when the accident occurred.

For today the weatherman has predicted fresh and southwest winds,
partly cloudy and cool with showers.
The maximum temperature yesterday was 60 degrees and the minimum 50 degrees. Rainfall up to 7:30 o'clock was announced at 06
inch by the Dominion Meteorological
Bureau at Gonzales.

Maximum temperatures observed
on the grounds of the Strathcona
Hotel was 62 degrees, with the minimum 52 degrees. Rainfall up to 4:30 p.m. was placed at .19 inch.

yesterday and a few hours later the speedy Prince Robert, apparently laying in wait, pounced on the cargo ship. Cmdr. Beard reported
the German captain and most of
the crew, probably between forty
and sixty men, had been taken
aboard the Prince Robert, which
carries a complement of twenty
officers and 220 men.

It was the third time in the present war in which Canadian naval vessels have captured or aided in
the capture of an enemy ship.

In April the Canadian flotilla
leader Assiniboine aided a British cruiser in capturing the German freighter Hannover near Santo Domingo in the West Indies.

When Italy entered the war in
June the Canadian minesweeper
Bras D'Or captured the Italian
freighter Capo Noli, not far from Rimouski in the St. Lawrence
River.

MAY HAVE FUEL CARGO

The Weser was built in 1929 and re-engineered with Diesel engines in 1934. Various reports have been heard about the ship from time to

time, and it was rumored she might be seeking to refuel enemy submarines.

The Weser is 487 feet long and has a speed of seventeen knots. The Prince Robert is 366 feet long and
was commissioned in the Canadian Navy in July after being converted
to an armed merchant cruiser at a North Vancouver shipyard. Asked
what use might be made of the Weser Mr. Macdonald said, "we'll have to look her over before we decide."

IS VETERAN OFFICER

The commander of the Prince
Robert entered the Canadian Navy
with the first class of cadets in 1908 and so is one of its veteran officers. Fifty years old, he retired
a few months before the start of
the present war, only to return to duty again last September.

He is a grandson of the late Sir
Ezra Taubert, former Chief Justice of Canada. His wife lives on San Carlos Drive, A-500, Norman.
is a midshipman in the Royal Navy.
Other senior officers of H.M.C.S.
Prince Robert include Lieut.-Commander G. B. Hope, executive officer; Lieut.-Commander T. McDuff, navigating officer; Lieut.-Commander
(R) C. I. Hinchcliffe, engineer officer; Surgeon-Lieut. Edward Bel-lenger and Paymaster-Lieut. W. E.
Adamson.

NO CLEARING PAPERS

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 26 (AP)—
The Mexican Navy Department reported today the German freighter
Weser, intercepted by an armed
Canadian merchantman off Mexico's
Pacific Coast, had left the port of Manzanillo precipitately late Wednesday night without notifying port
authorities or obtaining clearance
papers.

The department asserted it had
no explanation. The Nazi vessel
sought refuge late in July in Man-
zanillo.

Available information, the department said, indicated the Weser's capture occurred outside Mexican territorial waters.

BIG PLANE TO JOIN SEA COAST PATROL

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—An
American-built Grumman amphibian
plane, under Canadian registry, took off from LaGuardia Field
today for an undisclosed Canadian
destination to become part of the Dominion's sea coast patrol. The two-engine craft was sold recently to the British Purchasing Commission by Frank Du Pont, of Wilmington, Del., for a reported price of $40,000.

Certain Elements on Montreal Waterfront Giving Shipowners Trouble

MONTREAL, Sept. 26 (CP).—Harbor-front officials said today that "certain elements" appear to be at work among foreign seamen in Montreal, attempting to persuade them to refuse to work their ships out of the port unless higher wages are granted.

"There are reasons to believe that certain elements are at work in the local Greek cafes, aggravating the situation," said Commander C. J. Stuart, naval officer in charge of the port of Montreal.

Indigestion Gone;
Feels Fine Again

"Mosby's Tonic Is Splendid," Says Well-Known Vancouver Man—Suffered With Sharp Pains Due to Gas—Felt So Worn Out Could Hardly Work—Now Relates How Mosby's Tonic Gave Splendid Relief

"I never would have believed there was such a medicine!" That is what people are saying about MOSBY'S TONIC all over Vancouver and throughout this entire vicinity. This is the mixture of Roots and Herbs and Other Splendid Medicinal Ingredients, now being introduced to the public daily at the Cunningham Drug Store. Some of the best-known residents of Victoria and this whole section are coming forward daily with sincere statements, publicly endorsing this New Scientific Compound.

Describes Relief From Indigestion Pains

Among the many people who praise Mosby's Tonic, none is more enthusiastic than Mr. R. Jones, of 935 Georgia St. East, Vancouver. Mr. Jones is a well-known local citizen. Read what he has to say about this Splendid Medicine. His statement follows:

"I got such splendid relief from Mosby's Tonic that I gladly give my statement, endorsing this medicine and I hope what I say here will help many others," said Mr. Jones. "For a long time I suffered with violent pains of indigestion, and felt so weak and exhausted all the time that I could hardly get on my feet. It seemed like I had no energy at all."

"I read so much about Mosby's Tonic, and so many people had recommended it that finally I made up my mind to try it. Will say that I could see results from the VERY FIRST. So I kept on with it and now I feel like a different person. I have more energy now than I had in a long time. This medicine is ALL THE WAY! I gladly give my statement endorsing it to others."

Acts on Bowels, Stomach, Liver and Kidneys

MOSBY'S TONIC accomplishes several things within the human body at the same time. That is because it contains 20 ingredients, including 15 Roots and Herbs. It cleanses the bowels and clears gas and flat from the stomach. It calms the liver, cleans old bile from system and relieves biliousness and aches and pains. It invigorates the kidney action, thus stopping backache. People soon feel like different men and women.

MOSBY'S TONIC is sold in Victoria at the CUNNINGHAM DRUG STORE, Port and Douglas Sts. and also sold by all Leading Druggists throughout Victoria and Vancouver Island.

Waiting to welcome the first contingent of young Australian pilot trainees to reach Canada under the British Commonwealth Air Training Plan, pictured above, are: Air Vice-Marshal S. J. Goble, C.B.E., D.S.O., D.F.C., chief liaison officer for the R.A.A.F. in Canada, and Wing Commander A. H. Hull, R.C.A.F.

It's got black crosses on it! You can imagine the excitement.

"It was just at dusk, and it is the custom for our planes to wait in the evening for a signal to land. We were considerably amused when the airfield controller gave the German a green light, meaning 'okay, you can put it down now.' Of course there was a great scramble for souvenirs. I got a piece of a machine gun. We found that the plane had been riddled with bullets by our aircraft and was just able to make the airfield. Both rear gunners were dead, having been shot to death."

Young Muncy is a fitter-armorer, and has been selected to take a pilot's course, having passed the medical board, and expects to be called for training shortly. He is a Seymour-Biggs boy.

Young Flyer From Ottawa Reported
Killed in Action

OTTAWA, Sept. 26 (CP).—P.O. Arnold E. Waterson, Ottawa, is reported to have lost his life as a result of air operations on September 24, according to a cable received by his parents from the British Air Ministry today.

P.O. Waterson was twenty-four years old and joined the Royal Air Force in October, 1938.

POOR REWARD

The young man had been reading knightly romances, and he grew dissatisfied with the present unromantic state of the world. He believed it his duty to infuse some romance into the daily round.

On a very rainy day he sallied forth to perform some knightly errand. He behaved a very smart girl just stepping onto the muddy pavement from a car. Hastening forward, he spread his overcoat under her daily feet.

She looked at him in surprise. "Of all the damned idiots!" she exclaimed.

President of Northern Concern Retiring After Forty-Three Years in North

Forty-three years ago, Herbert Wheeler, native son of Victoria, started work for the Canadian Development Company, and at the end of this year will retire from the presidency of the White Pass & Yukon Road, its successor, having worked up through all the grades of service at White Horse headquarters, Yukon Territory.

In 1897 when the Klondike gold rush was really starting, young Wheeler went north and began his career as a clerk. Later he was transferred to the stage line operating between White Horse, Dawson and Lower Yukon points. Those were the days of small river boats and dog teams.

The White Pass Road runs from Skagway to White Horse, a distance of 110 miles. It was built as a link between ocean and river transportation. Passengers, mails and freight are carried over the White Pass by train and to down-river points by boat.

The company operates a number of river craft, three running between White Horse and Dawson; one boat to Mayo, one on the Stewiack River, and another on lakes in Alta district. The company also has a number of planes in service. They fly on regular schedules between White Horse, Mayo and Dawson, besides flying to isolated places with trappers and prospectors.

Mr. Wheeler will make his home in Victoria following his retirement from the presidency of the White Pass & Yukon Road. He will be succeeded by Cliff J. Rogers, now vice-president and general manager of the company.

Intensive Search Fails to Reveal Trace of Machine

PORT DALHOUSIE, Ont., Sept. 26 (CP).—Intensive search of the waters of Lake Ontario near here throughout the night and early today failed to reveal any trace of an unidentified airplane believed to have been forced down late yesterday.

The plane headed out over the lake shortly before midnight and observers said it did a loop before coming to rest on the rough waters of the lake.

Distress signals were seen, but vessels were not able to reach the machine before all signs of it had disappeared.

Free French in London Publish Daily Journal

A member of l'Alliance Francaise here during the past week has received from London a copy of the first issue of "France," a French daily published in England for the men and women who have joined hands with the British in the struggle for a free France.

"We are so proud to have them with us at this time, on our embattled Island, and feel sure more will come to join the army and navy of General de Gaulle as time goes on and they can make their escape across the Channel," wrote the Englishwoman who sent the paper.

The actual date of the publication of the first issue of "France" was August 26. The editorial offices are at 85 Fleet Street. It is a four-page journal, the first page devoted to editorial matter, the principal column in which clearly sets out that "this journal is designed for all those of our compatriots who refuse slavery and are determined to banish oppression . . . It is also our purpose to give to French people in this country (Britain), in French, exact information concerning France." It also summarizes the evidence of loyal support of the cause of liberty throughout the British Empire by saying that "all these facts prove to us that all is not lost."

Brian Donlevy Cast as Irishman Who Won Mastery of Political Ring

If advance reports from critics in film centres can be accepted as a criterion, Preston Sturges, in his first writer-director assignment has turned out a smash hit for Paramount with his comedy-drama, "The Great McGinty," which will open today at the Dominion Theatre.

In selecting his cast, Sturges has assembled a group of popular players, each one of whom seems ideally fitted for the role he—or she—portrays. As a hard-headed, hard-fisted Irishman, "Dan McGinty," Brian Donlevy edges himself into a local political ring and becomes the right-hand man of the boss of the city—Akim Tamiroff. Handling all the protection and privilege money for the boss, Donlevy becomes an alderman. He marries his secretary—Muriel Angelus—when he runs for mayor, and the money comes rolling in.

ATLAS—A stirring dramatic theatre document is now shown in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Mortal Storm," with Margaret Sullivan, James Stewart, Robert Young and Frank Morgan heading an impressive cast of screen personalities. The screen play, adapted from the novel by Phyllis Bottome, tells the story of a family torn asunder by political forces.

CAPITOL "I Love You Again," theatre which ends today at the Capitol Theatre, starring William Powell and Myrna Loy, is fast-moving comedy dealing with the plight of a man who recovers from an eight-year attack of amnesia during which time he has deceived during his showings through-out the prominent cities in Eastern Canada.

All the cast of "Convoy" is in the super category, and includes such brilliant actors as Clive Brook, John Clements, star of "Four Feathers," and lovely Judy Campbell.

OAK BAY The gallant Canadian Theatre Northwest Mounted Police make their stand as the frontier flames with the redmen's fury in the action-packed "Susannah of the Mounties," 20th Century-Fox production now showing at the Oak Bay Theatre.

"CONVOY" COMING TO PLAZA THEATRE

Britain's mighty system of guiding merchant ships across the great Atlantic in the face of submarine raiders, through the watchful eyes of British cruisers and destroyers, will be shown in the film "Convoy," which will come to the Plaza Theatre starting on Monday.

"Convoy" brings to the screen the superb story of present-day real-life adventure on the high seas and its excellent photography has won high praise during its showings throughout the prominent cities in Eastern Canada.

All the cast of "Convoy" is in the super category, and includes such brilliant actors as Clive Brook, John Clements, star of "Four Feathers," and lovely Judy Campbell.

Greenberg Is Far Ahead of Fielders For Coming Series

Former First Sacker Leading in Three Divisions In American League Pennant Chase—Tigers' Outfield Overshadows Cincy Club—Cleveland Has Strong Lineup Ready

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—Big Hank Greenberg overshadows all rivals so completely that it is difficult to start to compare the outfielders of the teams that will clash in the World Series next week.

The great Detroit left fielder leads the American League in home runs, runs batted in and runs scored, and he is a mortal clinch to be acclaimed the year's most valuable player, succeeding Bucky Walters of the Reds, who won the honor last season.

To make the Tigers outfield superiority even more pronounced, they also possess the second-best gardener among the three clubs concerned, he is Barney McCoskey, their sophomore center fielder, who at last official averages was batting the ball at .338 and generally crowding Greenberg as a run-producer.

This pair, hitting in conjunction with Rudy York and Charlie Gehringer, give the Tigers a close approach to the Yankees' old murder's row.

Their right fielder, Pete Fox, is no slouch of a slugger, himself, and when Manager Del Baker feels like making a change he has such a capable pair in reserve as Earl Averill and Bruce Campbell, both scored .275 hitters.

FINE AVERAGES

Cincinnati, on the other hand, has won two National League pennants despite its weak and frequently shaken-up bleacher brigade. Ival Goodman, in right, was the best the Reds had for several years. He hit thirty home runs in 1938 and last season had a highly respectable batting average of .323. But this year he has been in a bad slump and is down to .255.

In center Manager Bill McKechnie has the freshman, Mike McCormick, finally having been forced to give up on Harry Craft, Jim Rippe, claimed from the minors, appears to have sewed up the left field job with a little timely hitting in the last month, since Morris Arnovich proved a flop. There isn't a .300 hitter in the lot.

Cleveland, in the stretch battle against Detroit, has used the veteran Ben Chapman in left field, Roy Weatherly in center and Beau Bell in right, with Jeff Heath in reserve. Only Weatherly is hitting above .300, as the Indians, like Cincinnati in the other league, have made their stand on the stretch of good pitching and a tight defence. Chapman and Bell, however, are substantial .280 hitters, giving the Indians an outfield that at least is more dangerous at bat than Cincinnati's.

MAY BE FAVORED

NEW YORK, Sept. 26 (AP)—It's been a long time since a National League team went into the World Series with a certified chance to win, but this year Cincinnati Reds not only have a chance; they are likely to be rated favorites.

There is little question that Cincinnati's foe eventually will be Detroit Tigers, but the race isn't over yet and they are being forced to go "all out" in order to win.

At one time this season Detroit had one of the best pitching staffs in the American League, but the boys don't look like it now. Buck Newsom had to work in two games yesterday. Tommy Bridges hasn't been able to finish his three starts.

Young Hal Newhouse has had a to pitch his heart out to beat Bob Feller tomorrow and if he fails, Newsom may have to go back to the hill Saturday or Sunday.

On the other hand the Reds are

FELLER FACES ROWE TODAY IN THE BOX

Aces of Cleveland and Detroit Mound Staffs Given Assignments

CLEVELAND, Sept. 26 (AP)—The heavily-favored Detroit Tigers steamed into town tonight for the American League's own "wild series," a three-game slate with the second-place Cleveland Indians.

Leading by two games, and thus needing only one victory to beat out the Tribe, the pennant-hungry Berigals prepared to shoot the works with well-rested Schoolboy Rowe taking the mound in tomorrow's opener.

Manager Ozzie Vitt, of the turbulent Indians will seek to trump Detroit's ace with Schoolboy Bob Feller. Manager Del Baker's comely on the series was brief. "It's a matter of time before the Indians will take the Indians on Saturday in his last appearance. Feller stopped the Tigers on Sunday. Rowe's record is 16-3 with three victories over the Indians. Feller is 27-10 with three triumphs over the Tigers.

BASE THEIR HOPES

Fighting with their backs to the wall, the Indians based their hopes for a sweep on a strong pitching staff and a tight infield defence.

In batting power, the Redskins can't hold a candle to the slugging Tigers.

The leaders pacing the league in hitting with 287, have six men hitting above .300—Hank Greenberg, Rudy York, Barney McCoskey, Billy Sullivan, Charley Gehringer and Birdie Tebbets.

The Indians, batting a puny 267, have only Roy Weatherly in the charmed circle and his .305 isn't exactly robust.

SPORTS WRITERS' TOURNEY

KITCHENER, Ont., Sept. 26 (CP)—Ivan Miller, of The Hamilton Spectator, toured the Kitchener Westmount golf course on 84 today, to take low gross honors in the third annual tournament for Ontario sports writers. Bill Herbert, of The Galt Reporter, won the low net award.

Second low gross went to Fred Jackson, sports editor of The Toronto Star, and second low net was Tommy Moore, of The Hamilton Spectator. Verne Degreer, sports editor of The Toronto Globe and Mail, took third low net, while Vic McKenty, of The Kitchener Record, was fourth.

The Yankees had to fight desperately in the first game, as the A's nibbled at old Red Ruffing for ten hits, while Rookie Porter Vaughan gave nine.

The second game was a spectacular pitching show starring Ernie Bonham, of the Yankees, and Buck Ross, of the A's, each giving only four hits.

After taking the first game of a double-header from the Cardinals, 4-3, the Reds' dropped the second, 5-1.

The "September salary spurt" of New York Giants netted them two triumphs over Philadelphia Phillies, 3-1 and 2-1.

Harry Gumbert allowed only four scattered hits in winning the first game.

The Dodgers closed their home season by dropping a double-header to Boston, 5-2 and 5-4.

Pittsburgh's Pirates, fighting to hold fourth place in the National League, beat off Chicago Cubs, 7-6, to go two games ahead of the Cubs.

Double Victory Over Mack's Athletics Gives Champions Opportunity of Finishing Schedule in a Tie With Either Detroit or Cleveland—Bonham Scores Another Victory

By The Canadian Press

New York Yankees continued their winning ways yesterday in a double-header with the Athletics, scoring 5-4 and 2-0 triumphs to keep alive a faint hope of retaining their American League championship.

The most the Yanks could get out of the regular season would be a tie. Yesterday's victories gave them a winning streak of eight games.

The Yankees had to fight desperately in the first game, as the A's nibbled at old Red Ruffing for ten hits, while Rookie Porter Vaughan gave nine.

AWARDED TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT IN FIRST BY REFEREE DEMPSEY

Former Heavyweight Boxing Champion Moves Step Closer to Return Fight With Louis by Quick and Unexpected Victory Over Young Irishman—Lasts 2 Minutes 39 Seconds

JERSEY CITY, N.J., Sept. 26 (AP)—Max Baer, 222 1-2-pound former heavyweight champion, stopped Pat Comiskey, 207 1-2, hitherto highly-regarded heavyweight prospect—in two minutes thirty-nine seconds of the first round of their scheduled fifteen-round fight before a crowd of about 10,000 fans tonight.

After a few brief exchanges, with neither having the upper hand, Max stepped in and nailed Pat with a short, right. The Irishman went down for an eight-count. As he got up, Max rushed in and pelted him at will.

As Pat huddled against the ropes, staying out of danger, Referee Jack Dempsey rushed in and pulled Baer off.

Dempsey waved them into action again, and again Max rushed in as Pat backed away, leaning halfway through the ropes as he tried to protect himself. With Comiskey making no return shots at Baer and Maxie just flailing away, Dempsey stopped the fight.

They said Maxie, old as a ring-mat, at thirty-one, guaranteed $30,000 for this fight, and not in any too good condition, would be a soft touch for rising young Pat.

But Baer walked out, traded a few exchanges with the big-jawed kid from Paterson, and then tossed that dangerous short right hand of his. Then there was Pat on the floor.

ON TOP AGAIN
Thus Baer, supposed to have retired five years ago when he was counted out on one knee to Joe Louis, supposed to be put away for keeps shortly before he walked out and flattened Tony Galento in this same ring a few months ago and supposed to be the clown who couldn't get serious against a serious fighting man, is on top of the world again, with a possible return bout with Louis in prospect.

"Experience counted this time," Max said out in his dressing-room, as he glanced about, kissing everybody within reach on top of the head.

"I drew him in, trying for the short right shot. The first time, he just got out of the way, but I knew then I'd catch him the next time. And, boy, how I did—didn't I?"

Promoter Mike Jacobs indicated he would talk over a possible bout for Max with Louis in Chicago next Spring.

Comiskey had no alibis tonight, except that he acted "like a wild, screaming young fool when I got hit."

"Maxie tagged me with a short left early in the fight," he recalled, "and it stung. So I rushed back at him, swinging wildly, like a sap. I want a return bout and I guarantee it won't happen again."

KNOTT IS ELECTED

At the annual meeting held this week, Ron Knott was chosen president of the Brentwood Badminton Club for the ensuing twelve months. Other officers elected follow: R. Watson, vice-president; Mrs. Ron Knott, secretary-treasurer; G. Douglas, captain; Miss P. Sluggitt, women's captain; and M. Atkins, official referee. The club will open play on October 1.

Rainiers' Game With Angels Is Stopped by Rain

SEATTLE, Sept. 26 (AP)—Rain washed out the two scheduled Seattle-Los Angeles baseball games in the President's Cup play-off here tonight, and the series will be resumed with a double header Sunday at Los Angeles.

Seattle won the first game of the four-out-of-seven series last night, 8-2.

Because the weather bureau predicted that the rain which started to fall at 4:00 p.m. probably would continue for several days, Seattle Club officials announced the series would be completed in the Southern city. The teams were to have moved south after the two games here tonight. The Los Angeles team prepared to leave tonight, with the Rainiers following in the morning.

Chalcedon to Face Barrier In Havre De Grace Handicap

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., Sept. 26 (AP)—Chalcedon, chief challenger to the retired Seabiscuit's all-time money-winning record and regarded by many as the best horse in training, is coming home to race.

The Maryland-bred distance runner, absent from his home state since winning the Pimlico special last November, will go forth on Saturday in the $15,000-added Havre de Grace Handicap.

Owner W. L. Brann's future plans for Chalcedon remained undetermined, but the decision to start him on Saturday was taken as an indication Brann had decided to let his champion shoot at Seabiscuit's money-winning mark of $437,720.

Seabiscuit established the record at seven years of age. Chalcedon, only four, has won $301,160 and has rich engagements booked. He was the 1939 "horse of the year" and today heads the handicap division.

TAIL, B.C., Sept. 26 (CP)—A second trail team will be placed in the West Kootenay Ice Hockey League, subject to approval of the league's officials. It was announced here today by Mike Welyko, who will enter the team.

The present trail entry, the Smoke Eaters, hold the British Columbia and world's amateur titles. Other entries in the West Kootenay circuit are Nelson and Kimberley. Gonzaga University of Spokane, which entered a team last year, has announced its intention to withdraw. Welyko, who led an intermediate team for the last two years, and played senior hockey for the now disbanded Roseland Miners in the Kootenay League, plans to import five or six Prairie players. He will be manager-coach of the new club.

ARMY BOXING MEET

CAMP BORDEN, Ont., Sept. 26 (CP)—The 1st Canadian Cavalry Regiment (Mech) of London, Ont., took top honors in a boxing tournament here tonight to win the Canadian Armored Corps Boxing Trophy with a total of twenty points, and championships in five classes. Several Western Canada boxers in the ranks of the London Regiment were former members of the Lord Strathcona Horse of Winnipeg and Calgary. Bernhard, a Saskatchewan lightweight, defeated R. Rutherford, of London, for the 135-pound title.

Bayonets in Place of Hockey Sticks

Corporal Murray Armstrong, ace sharpshooter for the New York Americans hockey team and formerly with the Toronto Leafs, is seen here thrusting his bayonet into a dummy as part of his training with N.P.A.M. forces at Dundurn Camp, Saskatchewan. That's Private Gordon Pettinger, of Port Arthur, another hockey player, attacking the dummy on the ground.

Twenty hours' sole flying and total of fifty hours' flying experience. With the exception of two from New Zealand and one from Singapore, all in the party were Australians, representing, according to Flight Lieutenant Henty, every state in Australia.

On the voyage to Canada, which was a pleasant enough one as far as weather was concerned, the embryo pilots kept fit with daily drills, organized games and attended numerous lectures. Outside of study hours, the principal relaxations included dancing and concerts, several of which were promoted by members of the group, who exhibited considerable entertainment talent.

In Australia these young flyers trained with "Tiger" Moths principally, but student pilots there are now using a great many training planes made especially for the Australian Air Force, now comprising some 26,000 airmen of all ranks, including ground crews. Twenty thousand of this force will proceed direct to England, the remainder coming to Canada under the British Commonwealth air training plan.

Recruiting for the Royal Australian Air Force has proved popular "down under." In addition to the thousands already in uniform, there is a large waiting list, an assurance that the supply of replenishments will be available as the need arises and the demand increases. There is no conscription in the Southern Commonwealth, but there is a system of compulsory service which demands all men between certain ages must undergo three months of military training each year.

Passing through this port, the Australian contingent were given an additional welcome when they disembarked to go aboard their trains for the overland portion of their long journey. They were welcomed by Hon. C. G. Power, Minister of National Defence for Air, on behalf of the Federal Government, who said:

"May the finger of retribution be in your armament. May the wind of victory be in your wings. Your presence here and the advance which has been made in the Empire air effort most emphatically give the he to the legend that only in totalitarian states can war organization be successfully accomplished on the grand scale."

Sir William Glasgow, Australian High Commissioner to Canada, joined in the welcome to his countrymen. He told them they were "ambassadors of Australia, here to work with people who wish to know better and who wish to know you better."

Others in the welcoming party who greeted the group of leading airmen, were Air Vice-Marshal S. J. Coble, C.B.E., D.S.O., D.F.C., chief R.A.F. liaison officer attached to the R.C.A.F. Wing-Commander A. H. Hull, Flying Officer Richard William, Flying Officer J. C. B. Johnson, Flight Lieutenant R. M. Wray, Flight Lieutenant J. M. Grant, paymaster, R.C.A.F., and Flight Lieutenant J. F. Lawson, personal aide to Air Vice-Marshal Coble.

VANCOUVER HOTEL TO HOUSE TROOPS

VANCOUVER, Sept. 26 (CP)—The Vancouver Province, in a newspaper story today, said:

"The old Hotel Vancouver will become barracks for 2,000 soldiers within a few days. It was stated at military headquarters today.

"These troops are being moved into the city from Prairie and Interior points.

"The first contingent is expected to arrive next week.

"In preparation for them, the central recruiting station, which once flourished, is being cleared out. Its duties will be taken over by the new sub-captain which has been set up in the Seaforth Armoury.

"Military headquarters of the Vancouver and Fraser Valley area, which had offices in the Federal Building, are moving into the old hotel as well.

"Major A. M. Bell-Irving, who was in charge of central recruiting station, will be a sort of military hotel manager.

"The oval room, the oak room and the crystal ballroom will be used as messes."

NO DESIGNS THIS YEAR

Coach Ben Hughes of Ottawa Gridders Has Little Hope of Title

MONTREAL, Sept. 26 (CP)—Time alone will tell the story, but the men who foot the bills on the Montreal scene hope there is truth in the saying: "United we stand, divided we fall."

Football has seen lean days in Montreal since one faction of the group behind Montreal's Big Four team went its separate way into the Ontario Rugby Football Union a few years back. But now there is no Montreal team in the O.R.F.U. and the warring groups have called a truce.

Bill Hughes, who has guided four clubs to the Canadian championship, has been lured out of the retirement he entered in 1936 after guiding Ottawa Rough Riders to a Big Four crown.

Hughes holds little designs on a Dominion title this year for Montreal, last winners of the national crown in 1931. However, the prospects of how far a Hughes-coached team may go has caused more than one veteran to forego retirement announced at the end of last year. Many of them will be on hand when the Montreal club opens its schedule on October 5 against Toronto Argonauts.

STAR PLAYERS

For instance, there is hefty Johnny Ferraro, of last year's Montreal Westmounts of the O.R.F.U., and long recognized as one of the East's best ball-toting halves. Two other "name" players in football for years—Pete Jokius and Tommy Burns—also have given up plans of sitting out.

From the Westmounts have also come a pair of strong inside—Andy Gallely and Alex Fleming—to flank Jerry Seagrath, former Calgary star who played with Montreal's Big Four team last season.

For ends there are six candidates with senior experience—Lloyd Daniels, Joe Riechman, Jimmy Hamilton, Lauri Mathieu and Eddie and Herb Burton.

The flying wing position will be capably filled by Bill Davies, selected on last year's mythical all-Eastern team.

The kicking department is strong with Gordie Noseworthy, Jimmy Allen and Quarterback Jimmy Riddell. The quarterback position undoubtedly will be filled by Riddell.

HOOKE

At their annual dinner they confidently expected to hear once more the story of his three-foot trout, but never a word came from Smith.

"The chairman decided to get to the bottom of the mystery.

"Smith, old boy," he said, "tell us about that trout."

Smith shook his head.

"I've given up telling fishing stories," he said.

"Whatever for?"

"It's like this," said Smith, "every time I started to tell one at home my wife gave me some wool to hold."

SO SAD

Full of his own importance, the sergeant-major was addressing a batch of new recruits.

"Drill's important!" he said. "It develops the body. Look at me!" he added, with a smirk. "Not an

CHAPTER XXXIII

"I don't suppose we shall. Newton and New York don't cross often and you'll have no reason for coming back. I really must go. It's lighter now. I'm sure I can find my car."

Her hand fumbled with the car door and opened it, and he got out, circled his car and came to her. Together they walked to the small roadster she shared with her father.

"Your coat, Norman."

"Won't you need it?"

"No. I hope the motor isn't set."

She thought: This is like dying, like saying good-bye to everything in life that is dear, to life itself! And I'll remember everything about this last minute.

He stood beside the car, the two coats over his arm, the spasm of his face every few seconds. As the old motor started reluctantly, she wished that he would say something ridiculous and gay so that they could part laughing.

"Good-bye, Norman. It was nice to know you." Nice!

"And you."

"Good luck."

He said nothing else as the car jerked and moved along the muddy road. She saw him through the mirror and then, looking ahead, she drove by habit rather than by sight; her tears would not let her see.

An hour later, when Norman had changed the damp brown suit for a dry blue one, he found Edwina playing solitaire in her drawing-room. She ordered a drink for him and then, curling up on the divan, smiled at him.

"I hoped you'd come. I've so much to tell you! The phone's been ringing so much that poor Sam is hoarse from answering it. The library sent out packing cases for the books. They wanted to send men but I told them we'd do the packing. Mr. Lane called, too. I think it's a sale although he said he wouldn't want the house until October. Mrs. Lane is visiting her daughter in California. So I won't have to be in a rush about leaving. I'd like to stay as long as I can."

"It's worked out so well it scares me a little. I can sleep and breathe and think in peace. You've no idea how good it is. It's like having a pain relieved—not by dope but by a permanent cure." She gave a little happy laugh. "Why don't you hang out a shingle? 'Dr. Alexander mends lives—not bones.' Or am I embarrassing you? I may not be embarrassing you, darling, but I am certainly talking you to death."

"Talk some more."

She laughed again. "He likes my chatter! But seriously, I didn't think I had anything to talk about. And now, between phone calls and people telling me how wonderful I am because I'm giving Patrick Burke's art treasures to the public, that I'm a chip of the old block, that I have a pure and unselfish soul, I want to talk about what I'm going to do when I leave here."

"I'll take the typing job you offered me and a working girl's apartment, and since my formal education was so badly neglected, I'll take some courses when the Fall classes open. Edwina Burke with books under her arm and maybe horn-rimmed spectacles. Edwina Burke learning about political economy and what really caused the Civil War."

She shook her head.

"I'm not making fun. I like it."

And her eyes, rested, calm and bright, flew to her father's portrait.

"He'd like it, too. He had a great respect for learning and he had a little education. You know, Norman, when the house is sold and my debts are all paid, I'm going to have something over. I've been frowning over figures. I'm going to invest my little capital. I've finished my speech. What's on your mind?"

Leaning forward with a tall crystal glass in his hand, he said, "Maybe I ought to skip it altogether since it doesn't matter one way or the other. But Carol just told me that you told her you and I were going to be married."

"Carol Tallant? Yes, Norman, I did. And it wasn't meant to be a monstrous lie, believe me. I had so much to tell you."

"And you."

stuffed myself with the belief that we were, that my scheme couldn't fail, it just slipped out that day. But I thought better of it and didn't let my optimism run away with me again. You were out to the quarry tonight? How are the new lights?"

"During the storm the lights—the lights went out."

"Does it matter that I told Carol that?" Edwina said, concern in her voice.

DOGGED

A man who had met a friend in the street was boring him with a long-winded account of his dog's virtues. Suddenly a cat stalked majestically across the road.

"Chase him!" cried the man to his dog.

The dog yawned, looked on with a bored expression and did not attempt to move.

Red of face, the owner continued to urge him to chase the cat, but without any success. Finally, in desperation, he turned to his friend and said:

"There, what would you make of a dog like that?"

"Sausages," murmured the other gravely.

Lightfoot Visits Paddy the Beaver

By THORNTON W. BURGESS

Deep in the Green Forest is the pond where lives Paddy the Beaver. It is Paddy's own pond, for he made it himself. He made it by building a dam across the Laughing Brook.

When Lightfoot the Deer bounded away through the Green Forest after watching the hunter pass through the hollow below him, he remembered Paddy's pond. "That's where I'll go," thought Lightfoot.

"It is such a jonesome part of the Green Forest that I do not believe that hunter will come there. I'll just run over and make Paddy a friendly call."

So Lightfoot bounded along deeper and deeper into the Green Forest. Presently, through the trees, he caught the gleam of water. It was Paddy's pond. Lightfoot approached it cautiously. He felt sure he was rid of the hunter who had followed him so far this morning, but he knew that there might be other hunters in the Green Forest. He knew that he couldn't afford to be careless for even one little minute. Lightfoot had lived long enough to know that most of the sad things and dreadful things that happen in the Green Forest and the Green Meadows are due to carelessness, often only a moment's carelessness. So one who is hunted, be he big or little, can afford to ever be careless.

Now Lightfoot had known of hunters hiding near water hoping to shoot him when he came to drink. That always seemed to Lightfoot a dreadful thing, an unfair thing. But hunters had done before and they might do it again. So Lightfoot was careful to approach Paddy's pond up wind. That is, he approached the side of the pond from which the Merry Little Breezes were blowing towards him, and all the time he kept his nose working. He knew that if any hunters were hidden there, the Merry Little Breezes would bring him their scent and thus warn him.

He had almost reached the edge of Paddy's pond when from the farther shore there came a sudden crash. It started Lightfoot terribly for just an instant. Then he guessed what it meant. That crash was a falling tree. There wasn't enough wind to blow over even the most shaky dead tree. There had been no sound of axes, so he knew it could not have been chopped down by men. It must be that Paddy the Beaver had cut it, and if Paddy was working by daylight it was certain that no one had been around that pond for a long time.

So Lightfoot hurried forward eagerly, but still cautiously. When he reached the bank he looked across towards where the sound of that falling tree had come from. A branch of a tree was moving along in the water and half hidden by it was a brown head. It was Paddy the Beaver taking the branch to his woodpile.

SLASH BURNING IS UNDER WAY

Annual Clean-Up of Logged Areas Throughout Bush In Progress

Bush smoke prevalent in the lower coast areas in the last few days is coming chiefly from controlled slash burning, officials of the Provincial Forest Service said yesterday. Logging companies generally have seized the opportunity of recent rains to clear areas cut over in the season's operations to date.

Under policies instituted recently by the Provincial Department of Lands, slash must be burned and the ground left clear, to remove some of the fire hazard from accumulations of debris on the soil.

The slash burning starts towards the end of September, and will continue as conditions permit for the next few weeks. In one or two instances slash fires spread to adjoining property, but these, it was believed yesterday, are well under control.

The whole programme is supervised by officials of the service, working in co-operation with the timber operators. A quick-disposal policy in connection with slash improves reseedling, and insures faster regeneration on logged off areas, it was pointed out.

NOT PARTICULAR

The slightly inebriated young man entered a ten-story building. He walked into a lift crowded with five other passengers.

The attendant closed the door. "Floor, please?" he asked.

"Third!" said one passenger.

"Nine!" said another.

"Six," a third.

"Four," came one request.

"Ten," said another.

The attendant turned to the reveler.

"What floor do you want, sir?"

The inebriated one shrugged his shoulders.

"That all depends," he murmured. "What's left?"

NEW RECTOR IS GIVEN WELCOME

Reception at St. Paul's Parish House for Rev. Dr. And Mrs. W. C. Western

St. Paul's parish house at Esquimalt was filled to capacity at the reception to Rev. Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Western this week. Major G. St. Paul, the warden, presided and explained that the gathering was called to welcome their new rector and his wife.

He expressed the gratification of the congregation at the new appointment and pledged the officers and members of the church to full and energetic support of Dr. Western as he takes up his task.

Representing Rev. Dr. H. E. Sexton, Very Rev. Dean Elliott spoke on behalf of the bishop and also for the congregation of Christ Church Cathedral in wishing the new incumbent a long and fruitful ministry.

Rev. Frederic Pike, who, like Dr. Western, came from the prairie, spoke of his long association with him in the diocese of Qu'Appelle.

Replying to the speeches, the new rector expressed his appreciation of the kind welcome extended to him both by the clergy and by the congregation of St. Paul's.

THE RED CROSS CAMPAIGN

Sir,—Relative to subscriptions received by the Arena Campaign Executive and now held in the bank. The Canadian Red Cross Society is holding its national campaign this week, and it is suggested that the fund now held by the Arena Campaign Executive be turned over to the administration of the Red Cross Society in this national emergency. I am sure this action would receive the full support of every donor to the Arena fund.

ON RETALIATION

Sir,—In advocating that we retaliate by bombing Berlin, some people think I mean the wanton bombing of German women and children. Perish the thought!

What I mean is exactly this: During the past twenty years, large numbers of industries have gravitated to the Greater London area till today London is a veritable hive of industry.

The German high command, like Napoleon, will pay almost any price to obtain the key position, or, failing that, paralyze the nerve centre of the Government and civil administration.

As London is the nerve-centre of the British Empire it would have a devastating effect if its industrial and administrative machinery were hopelessly paralyzed. This, the Germans well know. The same psychological and material result would happen if we took the initiative and razed Berlin to the ground.

The Nazis are responsible for the horrible slaughter of innocents in their total war, and they would have to answer for the proper care of their non-combatants.

It would not be on our conscience if we deliberately set out to wipe Berlin off the map, any more than it is on our conscience that, by bombing the coastal ports of countries with whom we are not actually at war, we might kill many of their innocent nationals.

CANADIAN-BORN CHINESE

Sir,—Not that I, a native-born Canadian of Chinese racial origin, am not sharing the war sentiments with the peoples of the British Empire.

Not that my mind is not embroiled with the utmost hatred of those tyrannical dictators whose satanic lust for power has plunged the human race into the abyss of suffering and barbarity.

Not that I would not shed my blood for the defence of this country of Canada, if and when any aggressor should threaten her national freedom and territorial integrity.

Not that I am advocating opposition to the military conscription of Chinese Canadian youths for home defence.

But I wish to point out the unfairness which underlies the fact that we are not granted full civic and political rights and privileges in the country of our birth and which we are to be called upon to defend. I doubt not the willingness, nay the enthusiasm, of many a Chinese Canadian lad to serve the country at this trying juncture of her national existence; but are they, once in uniforms, to receive equal consideration, pensions, etc., which equality official Canada has consistently denied them in their civic and political life?

NIGHT NOISES IN CITY DISCUSSED

Mayor Urges Consideration for Men Who Are Going Away to Fight for Canada

Every consideration should be given men on active service who are going away to fight for Canada, Mayor Andrew McGavin told the police commission yesterday afternoon when a complaint in regard to night noises was read from the Local Council of Women.

Chief J. A. McLellan explained that night noises were kept at a minimum as far as the police department was able to exercise control.

"You must consider there are several thousand soldiers and sailors near the city. We must allow for navy and army pay days," the chief declared.

The commission received and filed a complaint from W. E. G. Crisford, that, because of the disturbance in the early morning hours, letters from Walter J. Fletcher and James W. Bethel urging the restoration of angle parking on Douglas Street were referred to the City Council. It was decided to order eleven topcoats and thirty-seven pairs of trousers for the police department. The commission received and filed a letter from R. Armistead suggesting that stores be allowed to remain open an extra hour at night.

Court of Appeal Victoria Sittings

Rev. vs. J. W. R. McLeod—This appeal challenges a conviction made on August 30, 1940, by His Honor Judge Lennox. The indictment charged that McLeod, being a director of Freehold Oil Corporation, Ltd., a public company, did concur in making false statements as to the company's financial position, and particularly that the assets of the company consisted of $48,780 in cash, with intention of defrauding the shareholders.

Mr. Meredith, in opening his argument, submitted as his main ground the evidence adduced could not support the conviction, as all the evidence was entirely applicable to a charge based on Section 413 of the Code, and the present action was laid under Section 414.

This appeal will occupy the full sitting of the court today.

WELSH POET DEAD

NAILSWORTH, Gloucestershire, England, Sept. 26 (CP).—William Henry Davies, sixty-nine, widely-known Welsh poet, died at his home here today. He became a poet and a doctor of literature of the University of Wales after years as a tramp in North America and as a worker on Atlantic cattle boats. When he returned to England he became a peddler of laces, pins and needles and a street singer of hymns. In 1905, at the age of thirty-four, he wrote his first poem.

BICYCLES RESTRICTED

BERLIN, Sept. 26 (AP).—To prevent waste of rubber tires, children owning bicycles may use their vehicles only for riding to and from school. The ruling said violators would be punished by confiscation of tires.

Why the Red Cross is in urgent need of funds

Here are a few tasks the Canadian Red Cross must tackle at once:

- 1 At the request of the British Red Cross, it has undertaken to provide 10,000 parcels of food each week from Canada for British prisoners of war in Germany. Canadians can thus help to lessen the strain in Britain's food supplies.
- 2 The Canadian Red Cross will provide, equip and co-operate with the Department of National Defence in maintaining a number of convalescent hospitals in various parts of Canada for use by Canadian soldiers, here and from overseas, who are sick or wounded.
- 3 The Canadian Red Cross will help to supply clothing and other necessities to the more than 100,000 evacuee children in Britain, and the 100,000 refugees from invaded countries who have sought shelter under the Union Jack. Many articles of relief clothing have been supplied, but another half million articles will be needed from Canadian Red Cross workrooms.
- 4 The Canadian Red Cross is sending an increasing flow of supplies for the alleviation of civilian suffering caused by enemy bombing of Britain.
- 5 As Canada's own armed forces grow, on land, on sea and in the air, the need for Red Cross services increases.
- 6 The Red Cross must be ready and fully equipped to meet any emergency at the moment it arises.

These are tasks you must not leave undone. Support the Red Cross with all your heart.
